Develop skills and gain understandings in the art of the hot stone massage and body treatments, offering your clients the dream body.

As a qualified beautician specialising in body treatments and stone therapy massage, careers can begin within a beauty salon, wellness centre, spa or clinic.

The dream body takes time, effort and discipline. You will learn different techniques to relax the long, skeletal muscles of the body, alongside with healthy body treatments that are used for body firming: body blemishes, cellulite, streamlining, smoothing and a glowing body.

Individuals embrace a range of well-developed technical and customer service skills where accountability and intelligence is required.

Therapists are responsible for their own productivities.

This includes being highly skilled in interacting with customers, reception areas, client consultations and care, beauty and cosmetic product knowhow's, product visual merchandising, whilst providing a range of sophisticated beauty services including: knowledge of skin and body structures and functions that promote secure skills in body massage and stone therapy massage.

You will also expand skills in innovative make-up applications and designs, face and body waxing, the latest on manicures and pedicures, lash and brow trends, treatments and designs, cosmetic body tanning, whilst maintaining the health and wellbeing of your environments and promoting healthy nutritional options to your clients.

Foundation Skills

Before you start training, you may need help to brush up basic skills including reading, writing or numeracy. If you need to you can access fee free foundation skills bridging units or courses. Your training provider will let you know about foundation skills courses if you need them.

Bridging Units

To successfully complete your course, you may need additional learning. Bridging units assist covering gaps in your existing knowledge or skills to make sure you don't fall behind. If you need to you can study up to five subsidised bridging units.

National Skill Sets and Local Skill Sets

National skill sets are short courses made up of one or more units of competency from a training package that are designed to deliver specific technical skills.

Local skill sets are specifically designed as introductory training pathways that help students to find out more about an industry before starting a training course.

There is currently no limit on how many national skill sets or local skill sets an eligible student can access.
