This Certificate specialises in a range of industry expected treatments, from face and body hair removal, brow design and shaping, lash and brow colouring, nutrition and wellness, skin health with radiance and lifting, new facial trends from traditional facial sculpting massage to super-relaxing skin infusions, body massages and the power of touch and healing energy. Nail care, design and spotlight trends and how to make positive changes to how you can best present yourself in industry.

You will also be able to communicate with clients to recommend treatments and services and sell game-changing skincare and cosmetic products. From splurge-worthy and cost-efficient we've got it covered.

From cleansers and balms to concentrates and masks, get ready for a lifetime of five-star knowledge for complexions.

Individuals at this level will undertake work independently, with very limited guidance from others, and be able to perform routine and non-routine activities, solving non-routine problems. They will also be able to apply and adapt technical skills and knowledge, using judgment in delivering beauty treatments and services and with that being responsible for their own productivities.

Successful graduates provide services in beauty salons and spas performing, fresh innovative cosmetic tanning applications, body massages and treatments, up-to-the-minute lash and brow services, advanced eyelash extensions, on trend facial treatments and skin care obsessions, refined hair removal, makeup designs, trends and techniques from guides to applying blush to change face shapes to tricks in drawing that perfect cat-eye wing with beauty lover techniques in designing and applying make-up for every day, commercial and fashion together with manicure and pedicures, from plenty of twists on the French manicure to mismatched nails and dip powder creations, there's something to learn for every vibe, mood, for all different nail shapes– from gel and acrylic nail enhancements to nail art classics and advanced covering the dimensional, overtones of shimmer, holographic and reflective shines with design techniques and trends.

Become part of our national spa-networking community.

Why study with us?
